

I am attaching evidence supporting the accusation House Minority Leader Vickie Iverson & her staff member Bryan Iverson (the Iversons) & Representative Brian Stout (HD31) and his staff member Nancy Stout (the Stouts) have & are engaged in violations of Oregon Government Ethics law in ORS Chapter 244, specifically:

- Use of public office for personal financial gain - See separately attached PDF with further hyperlinked documentation outlining evidence the Iversons have been using public office for personal gain through Iverson Media Group / VB consulting and other prohibited activities including evidence of collusive conflicts of interest for & between public officials (the Stouts) & other staff - also likely indicating violation of Oregon Lobbyist Regulations as well.
- Nepotism by public officials - See below photographic evidence the Iversons include family members in their use of elected position for personal gain - with evidence the Iversons and the Stout families work cooperatively toward the same ends.

This includes using combined resources of connected PACs, and Bryan Iverson's political influence and family connections to intimidate Brian Stout's sex abuse victim and publicly invalidate her claim to protect their converging interests: not unlike a minor La Cosa Nostra family operating under the umbrella of a larger one during prohibition - except it is a multi family political racket, not a multi-family bootlegging syndicate.

Because of the nature of the political work conducted by the Iversons through Iverson Media Group/VB Consulting - the following laws have likely been violated as well.

(4) A legislative or executive official may not receive consideration other than from the State of Oregon for acting as a lobbyist in Oregon.

This accusation is based on the notion that in Oregon lobbying activity includes verbal and written communication with legislative officials to support or oppose the legislative action. It also includes soliciting executive officials or other persons to seek to influence the legislative action. Lobbying also includes efforts to gain the goodwill of legislative officials.

This is what the Iverson's DO, to the tune of millions in personal gains, and increasing control over legislative action - including using her position as head of Evergreen PAC to use blatant lies to manipulate Republican State House Primary Elections to favor an adjudged sexual abuser - thus effecting the composition of the Republican House Caucus - with other Republican House Candidates aspiring to also use their elected position, in the exact same way: Rep Brian Stout & his staff member Nancy Stout: see attached proof that Nancy Stout followed the Iverson's blueprint of using Iverson Media Group / VB Consulting for illegal lobbying and use of office for personal gain when she started QS Consulting on November 23rd - two weeks after her husband was elected to the Oregon House. - see attached taken from Oregon SOS Corporate division records.

Seeking a protective order "has simply been a political hatchet job and not an honest request for legal protection from purported sexual abuse," Stout's attorney wrote.

Stout's attorney noted that a records request for the court records was filed by "a consultant with a political action committee" — though that woman, Macie Leach, is a consultant with the Bring Balance to Salem political action committee, which was formed to elect Republicans to the state Legislature.

To clarify explicitly - this is an ethics complaint against both the Iversons & the Stouts.

I have additional information and a growing list of witnesses that are in need of presentation in a less restricting venue.

Please call, text, or email for more.
